IV. General

1. Evaluation of specific problems which occurred. Discuss special problems not reported elsewhere, such as politing facilities segregated by race; business being carried on in the voting place; large crowds gathering around the voting place; heckling of minorities: efforts by officials to delay the processing of minority voters; polling place obviously too small; insufficient tables or booths for voting; any evidence of intimidation by citizens or officials such as taking photographs of voters. Also, report any unusual occurrences not in-

2. Describe the nature and extent of your contact with election officials.

Be sure that you attach all lists and extra pages of lists or notes to the report to the Attorney General.

We certify that the foregoing report and attached comments are an accurate report of our observations In the election identified on the first page.
